

Currie Sun Min Lee

Head of Korea Desk – Bun & Associates

Ms Currie Sun Min Lee, esq, is a New York licensed international lawyer with a J.D. in Common Law from the University of Victoria, LL.M. in Civil Law & International Investment Law from Peking University, and an LL.M. in Public and Private International Dispute Settlement (International Arbitration & Mediation) from the Graduate Institute Geneva. She also has a certification in International Legal Mergers & Acquisitions from the International IMMA Institute and as an Approved Person in the Trust Sector from the Cambodian Trust Regulator.

Ms Lee was also the Chairperson of the AML Committee and is now the Chairperson of the Audit Committee as an Independent Director at KB PRASAC, Chairperson of the Legal Committee at KoCham and Inaugural Council Member at the Cambodia Institute of Directors. She is currently Head of the Korea Desk at Bun & Associates, a Legal Advisor to the Korean Embassy, a Global Regional Expert in Investment for KOTRA and an M&A Lecturer at RULE.

As a previous investment lawyer, “Business Women to Watch”, “Tatler’s Top 8”, “Top 100 Business Influencers” and entrepreneur, she has also consulted for multinational luxury brands on their Chinese entry and expansion strategy. Ms Lee’s cross-jurisdictional, cross-cultural and cross-sectoral experience allows her to holistically navigate the nuanced requirements and realities of companies in emerging markets by assisting, advising and advocating across public and private stakeholder relationships with a legally and commercially attuned approach.